H I S T O R Y

In the beginning there were 35. These 35 little shipmates with our captain, Miss Heloise Rodarmal, started on our voyage of education on a clear September morning in 1943. The names of these shipmates were: Jean Ann Bosse; Marilyn Cutter; Norita Cutter; William Cockerdam; John Daniels; Gerald Dennis; Phyllis Dunn; Charles Glenn; Janet Goodpaster; Jerry Gordon; Mamie Gully; Louise Homann; Robert Hudson; Anita Johnston; Stella Mae Kells; Joan Lane; Jerry Raisor; Phillip Raisor; Scharlene Ryle; Daniel Schmaltz; Richard Schuman; Joy Scott; William Scott; Grace Smith; Joan Steele; Beverly Steuver; Jean Thayer; LaVerne Thayer; Joyce Vinup; Dale Waldon; Perry Waldon; Glen Weatherford; Gerald Walker; Betty Zimmerman; William Zimmerman.

In our next years of grade school the following captains helped us over the troubled waters: Mrs. Goldie Michel, Mrs. Irene Rumph, Miss Clarise Elston, Mrs. Jeanette Graver, Mr. Roscoe Riggins, Mr. Lester Kruse, Miss Ruby Skelton, Mr. Edward Secor, Mr. Wilbur Stegemoller, and Mrs. Catherine Droege.

On May 2, 1951, our crew, by now reduced to 24, received our eighth grade diplomas. These 24 who had struggled through eight years on the turbulent seas of grade school were: Jean Ann Bosse, Carolyn Brett, Marilyn Cutter, Lydia Holliday, Helen Jackson, Anita Johnston, John Klausing, Joan Lane, Bettie Peters, Stanley Rice, Dorothy Schardt, Joy Scott, Lawson Simpson, Grace Smith, Virginia Stegemiller, Beverly Steuver, Jean Thayer, LaVerne Thayer, Joyce Vinup, Donald Weiss, Glen Weatherford, Betty Zimmerman, William Zimmerman.

In our freshman year we started on the higher seas of learning in our beaten but yet faithful ship. We had lost Jean Thayer and Lawson Simpson since our last year but had gained Audrey Auxier, David Benning, Donald Bowling, Evelyn Brandon, Bonnie Craig, Ruth Droege, Larry Elder, Louise Homann, Joyce Licking, Glenroie Pruss, Nena Sellers, Charles Workman.

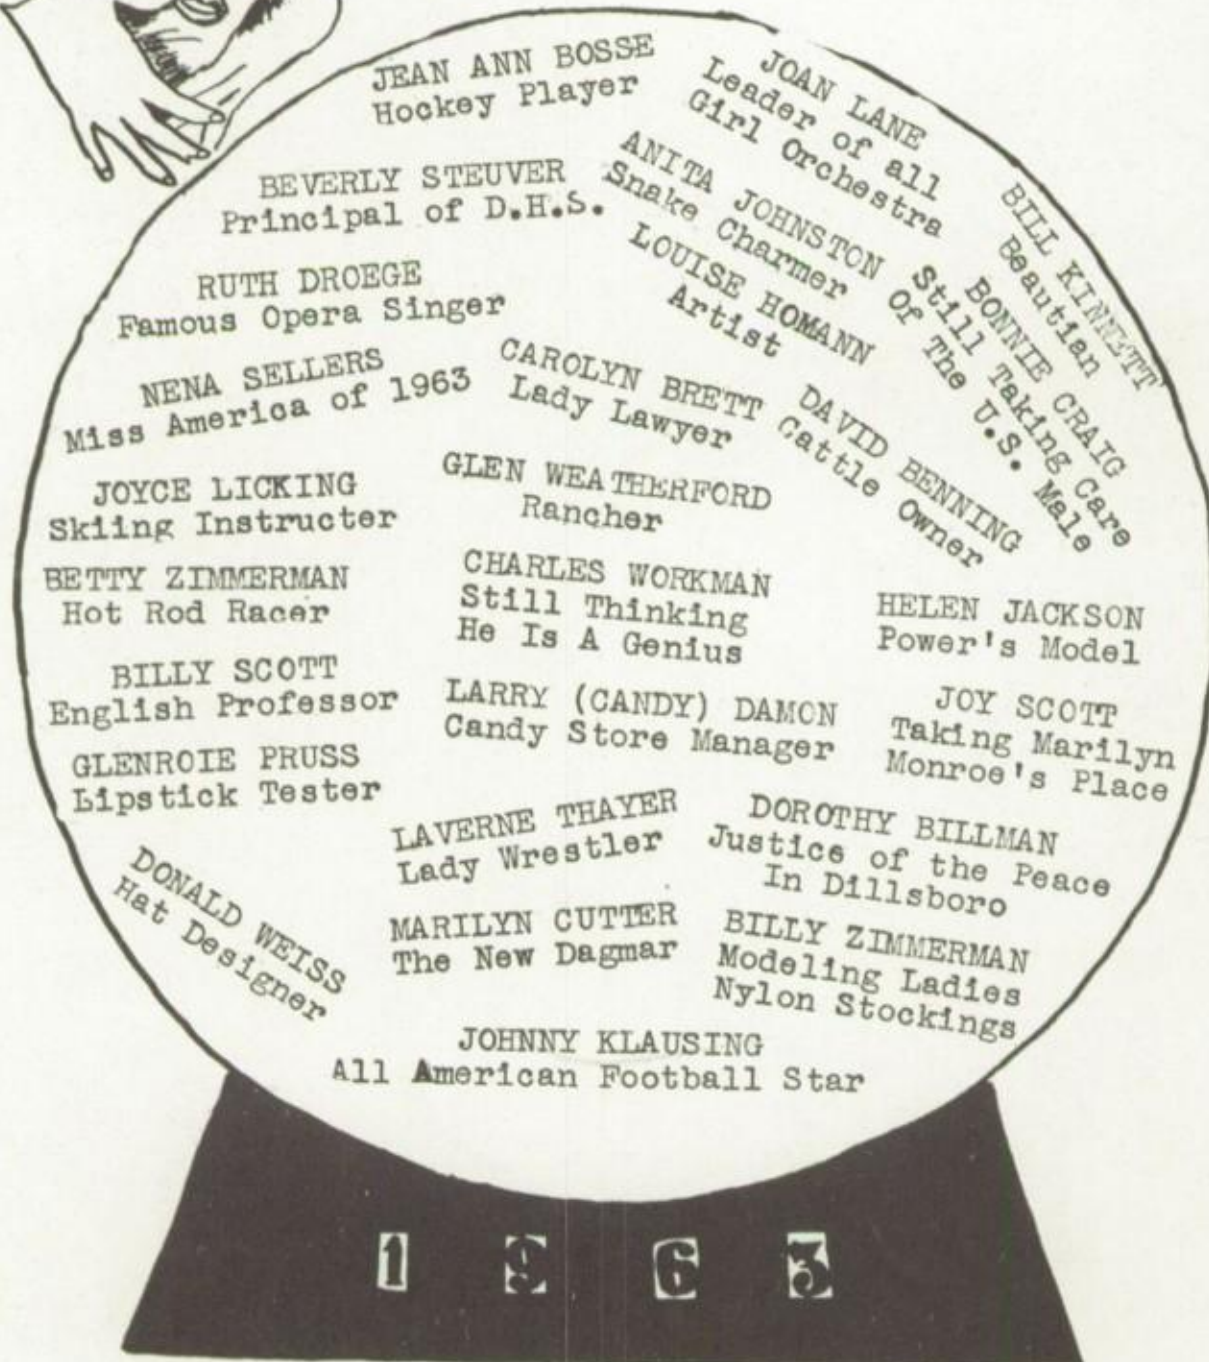

During our sophomore year we gained 2 new members, Ida Bolling and Larry Damon, but also lost Donald Bowling, Evelyn Brandon, Larry Elder, Bettie Peters, and Stanley Rice.

Boarding our ship again we found a new shipmate aboard, James Bill Kinnett, but missing were Audrey Auxier, Ida Bolling, and Lydia Holliday.

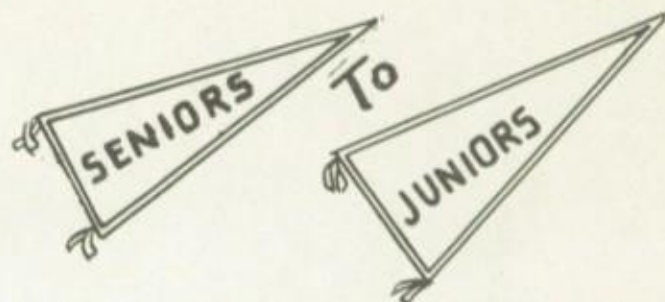

As we entered our last days on this voyage of education, our crew consisted of 27 seamen, 12 of whom had started out on this journey so long ago. This year we gained a new crew member, Ronnie Crosby. Looking back we feel just a bit sad about leaving this place to which we are so accustomed, but when we look ahead we realize each has a new voyage awaiting.

PROPHESY

CLASS WILL

We, the senior class of 1955, of Dillsboro High School, being of sound mind and memory, and realizing our imminent departure from school life, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

To Mr. Mikels and the faculty, we leave our appreciation for their interest and guidance through these trying years.

To Mr. Peiper, our custodian, we leave our used books & paper-filled desks.

To the Juniors, we leave our disagreements with the teachers.

To the Sophomores, we leave our gripes and complaints.

To the Freshmen, we leave the desire for becoming Seniors.

The individual seniors, each having valuable possessions and abilities, do hereby bequeath them as follows:

- I, Bill Zimmerman, will my steady girl to Tom Davies.
- I, Carolyn Brett, will my dancing ability to Mervin Casey.
- I, Louise Homann, will my quiet ways to Carolyn Luke.
- I, Dorothy Billman, will my ability to get my man to Rosalie Scott.
- I, Bonnie Craig, will my eye-winkers to Richard Shuman.
- I, Nena Sellars, will my black hair to Arthur Luke.
- I, Joy Scott, will my telephone calls to Junior Niederbaumer.
- I, Helen Jackson, will my earnestness to James Baker.
- I, Joan Lane, will my little feet to Tommy Irwin.
- I, Bill Scott, will my blush to James Baker.
- I, Jean Ann Bosse, will my friendliness to Billy Rub.
- I, John Klausling, will my good typing to Johnny Cutter.
- I, Charles Workman, will my long legs to Ray Vinup.
- I, Marilyn Cutter, will my swiftness to Mike Long.
- I, Ronnie Crosby, will my Cincinnati brouge to Gerald Dennis.
- I, Beverly Steuver, will my desire for skating to Lorene Westmeier.
- I, LaVerne Thayer, will my big smile to Donald Jackson.
- I, Ruth Dorege, will my ambition to Anna Mae Kuster.
- I, David Benning, will my driving ability to Richard Lueders.
- I, Anita Johnston, will my good figure to Bobby Schulz.
- I, Glen Weatherford, will my sleepless nights to James Deaton.

(To Be Continued)

(Class Will Concluded)

I, Joyce Licking, will my blonde hair to Mary Wafford.

I, Larry Damon, will my nickname to Rosalie Marksberry.

I, Donald Weiss, will my grades in English to Charles Bressert.

I, Bill Kinnett, will my crew-cut to Mike Long.

I, Glenroie Pruss, will my bashfulness to George Niemeyer.
